NYYA RIVERLEAP

FOREST ELF DRUID 2nd Level

Nyya spent her life on the edges of society, half in the woods and half among the humans. Her heart belongs to the wild woods; the magical rivers, moonlit meadows and mysterious dark hollows. But her curiosity of the human world is a constant distraction for her. She cautiously seeks out the friendship of kind humans if they show enough respect for the trees.

Nyya has a red-tailed hawk as an animal companion. They haven't yet established a telepathic connection but still manage to communicate well most days.
